SYNOPSIS

On November 27, 2010, at 1710 hours Deputy [redacted] and [redacted] were assigned to uniformed patrol working unit #[redacted] As the deputies drove south on Lexington Road their attention was drawn to a female Hispanic who walked eastbound across Lexington Road into a McDonald's restaurant parking lot in front of the deputies vehicle. The female later identified as Suspect Monica Perez, had an unsteady gait and appeared intoxicated. Deputy [redacted] drove his marked patrol car into the McDonald's parking lot so the deputies could contact Suspect Perez regarding a jaywalking violation. The deputies contacted Suspect Perez in the drive-through entrance area of the restaurant parking lot.

Deputy [redacted] asked Suspect Perez questions as he sat in the front passenger seat of the patrol car. As Deputy [redacted] spoke to Suspect Perez he determined Suspect Perez was giving incorrect identifying information. Additionally, Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect Perez' clothing was bulging at the waistline and she began to move her hands in the area of her waistband. Deputy [redacted] ordered Suspect Perez to show him her hands. Suspect Perez complied by showing her hands, but kept them close to her waistline. Deputy [redacted] exited the patrol car fearing Suspect Perez was concealing contraband or a weapon. As Deputy [redacted] exited the patrol car, Deputy [redacted] also exited the driver's side of the car.

As the deputies exited, Suspect Perez began to back away. The deputies ordered Suspect Perez to stop moving away from them. Suspect Perez became irate and started to yell profanities at the deputies and told them they could not search her. The deputies approached Suspect Perez as she continued to move away from them and eventually turned to run. As Suspect Perez turned away, Deputy [redacted] rapidly moved toward Suspect Perez and grabbed her from behind by the shirt collar and left arm, pushing her forward onto the grass so she could not escape.

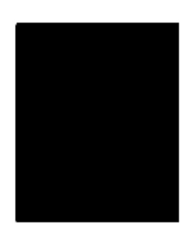

Suspect Perez landed face down on the grass and with both of her arms under her body with her hands near her waistband area. Deputy [redacted] kneeled on the left side of Suspect Perez and placed his right knee on Suspect Perez' legs to control them. Deputy [redacted] knelt on Suspect Perez' right side. Both Deputy [redacted] and [redacted] repeatedly ordered Suspect Perez to stop resisting and allow them to handcuff her. Both deputies then pulled on Suspect Perez' arms to pull them from underneath her body. As Deputy [redacted] pulled on Suspect Perez' right arm, the right side of her body turned toward the deputies. As Suspect Perez' torso turned she spat twice at the deputies, striking them in their faces and upper bodies.

Deputy [redacted] turned his face away and Deputy [redacted] performed an open-hand slap with his right hand to Suspect Perez' face to stun her and block her from spitting. Deputy [redacted] kept his hand over Suspect Perez' face to prevent any future spitting from the Suspect Perez. Deputy [redacted] continued to attempt to struggle for control of Suspect Perez' left arm. Deputy [redacted] removed his hand from Suspect Perez' face to use his portable radio. Deputy [redacted] attempted to broadcast that the deputies were involved in a fight and request assistance, but his broadcast did not transmit due to a battery failure. Deputy [redacted] then pulled Deputy [redacted] portable radio microphone from his lapel and broadcast they were involved in a fight. As Deputy [redacted] broadcast he and his partner were involved in a fight, Deputy [redacted] continued his attempt to gain control of Suspect Perez' left arm. After Deputy [redacted] radio broadcast, he again focused on gaining control of Suspect Perez' right arm. Deputy [redacted] deployed a one to two second burst of O.C. spray to Suspect Perez' face.

The O.C. spray had an immediate effect on Suspect Perez, causing her to become more compliant. Eventually the deputies were able to pull Suspect Perez' arms free from underneath her body and handcuff her through their combined efforts. Throughout the entire struggle with Suspect Perez she was verbally assaultive and failed to comply with the deputies verbal commands.

Charges Filed:	Misdemeanor, Resisting/Obstructing a Peace Officer, 148(A)(1) PC, Public Intoxication, 647(F) PC, and Possession of Narcotics Paraphernalia were filed on November 30, 2010.

INVOLVED DEPUTY STATEMENTS

The following narratives are intended only as a synopsis of the interviews. Additional information and precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interviews and verbatim transcriptions.

Deputy [redacted]

On January 11, 2011, Deputy [redacted] stated in his IAB Witness interview that he was working uniformed patrol with Deputy [redacted] Deputy [redacted] drove southbound on Lexington Road in an area known as the Horseshoe. He and his partner Deputy [redacted] saw an individual wearing a loose hooded sweatshirt with the hood pulled up. The individual crossed Lexington Road eastbound in front of their patrol and walked into the McDonald's restaurant parking lot. Initially, Deputy [redacted] believed the individual to be a male.

Deputy [redacted] and [redacted] contacted the individual in the McDonald's parking lot near the drive-through entrance regarding a jaywalking investigation. As they contacted the individual Deputy [redacted] realized that the individual was a female, Suspect Monica Perez. Deputy [redacted] asked Suspect Perez identifying information such as her name and birth date as they sat in their patrol car. As Deputy [redacted] asked Suspect Perez questions, Deputy [redacted] operated the MDT to check her identity. As Suspect Perez answered the questions, it became apparent to the deputies that Suspect Perez was giving them false information. Deputy [redacted] exited the patrol car and Suspect Perez became verbally confrontational using profanity and telling the deputies they could not search her and that they needed to get a female deputy. Deputy [redacted] said both of Suspect Perez' hands were in her waist as they exited the patrol car. Deputy [redacted] said he saw a bulge in Suspect Perez' clothing in the waistband area and it appeared there was a heavy object in the hooded sweatshirt pocket. Deputy [redacted] said Suspect Perez placed both of her hands inside the hooded sweatshirt pocket.

Deputy [redacted] attempted to calm Suspect Perez as Deputy [redacted] attempted to position himself to her side or behind her so that she could not run away. As Deputy [redacted] continued to talk to Suspect Perez she continued to back away from the deputies for approximately twenty to thirty feet. As Suspect Perez reached a grassy area, she turned to run from the deputies and Deputy [redacted] was able to close the distance, grab Suspect Perez and force her down into the grass face first. Deputy [redacted] said he ran to them and Suspect Perez was clutching her waistband area with her hands underneath her body. Deputy [redacted] knelt on Suspect Perez' right side and Deputy [redacted] was on her left side. Deputy [redacted] began to pull on Suspect Perez' right arm to break it free from underneath her body. Deputy [redacted] was concerned that Suspect Perez possessed a weapon. As Deputy [redacted] pulled on Suspect Perez' right arm it spun her causing her to look up toward the deputies. As Suspect Perez was looking at the deputies, she spit on Deputy [redacted] striking him in the face and arms. Deputy [redacted] turned away from Suspect Perez and Deputy [redacted] performed an open-hand slap to Suspect Perez' face with his right hand and held it on her face to prevent her from spitting on them. Deputy [redacted] heard Deputy [redacted] ordering Suspect Perez to stop fighting and give them her hands. Suspect Perez thrashed her head around as Deputy [redacted] attempted to maintain his hand on her face. As Suspect Perez moved she was able to kick Deputy [redacted]

Deputy [redacted] recalled Deputy [redacted] said that they needed to broadcast the fight on their radios. Deputy [redacted] pushed Suspect Perez down and let go of her to broadcast they were involved in a fight. Deputy [redacted] continued to struggle to control Suspect Perez. Deputy [redacted] attempted to use his portable radio but his radio chirped, indicating the battery was drained. Deputy [redacted] said he then pulled Deputy [redacted] microphone from his lapel and broadcast they were involved in a fight. Deputy [redacted] said he then tugged on Suspect Perez' right hand. As Deputy [redacted] began to struggle with Suspect Perez again, Deputy [redacted] used his O.C. spray on Suspect Perez' face. Deputy [redacted] said it was effective, because Suspect Perez yelled that she had been Tased. Deputy [redacted] said the use of the O.C. spray caused Suspect Perez to bring her hands from underneath her body and the deputies were able to handcuff her. Deputy [redacted] said he and his partner were not issued a Taser on the date this incident occurred. Deputy [redacted] prepared a complaint report regarding this incident [EXHIBIT B]. Deputy [redacted] also authored a supplemental report [EXHIBIT D] to clarify his actions regarding this incident.

On January 11, 2011, Deputy [redacted] stated in his IAB Witness interview, he was on routine uniformed patrol as a passenger with Deputy [redacted] Deputy [redacted] said as he and Deputy [redacted] drove southbound on Lexington Road an individual jaywalked in front of their patrol car and walked into the McDonald's restaurant parking lot. The individual walked slowly and appeared to be staggering. The deputies drove into the parking lot to contact the individual, Suspect Monica Perez. Deputy [redacted] asked Suspect Perez questions such as her name and date of birth. As Deputy [redacted] spoke with Suspect Perez he knew she was lying about her identity because her age did not match the birth date she had given. Deputy [redacted] saw something heavy in her waistband and asked her if she had anything illegal.

When Deputy [redacted] asked what Suspect Perez had in her waistband area, she appeared startled and told the deputies that they could not search or touch her. Deputy [redacted] said Suspect Perez placed her hands in the hooded sweatshirt pocket. Suspect Perez began to walk backward yelling profanities at them. Deputy [redacted] exited the car and attempted to calm Suspect Perez as she walked backward approximately fifteen to twenty feet.

Deputy [redacted] placed his right knee on Suspect Perez' thighs so he could control her legs. Deputy [redacted] immediately took a position on the left side of Suspect Perez. Deputy [redacted] attempted to pull Suspect Perez' left arm free from underneath her body as Deputy [redacted] pulled on her right arm. Both deputies ordered Suspect Perez to stop resisting and to give them her hands so that they could handcuff her. As the deputies struggled to control Suspect Perez, she turned to the right and spit at the deputies. Deputy [redacted] said he was struck in the face and upper chest area with Suspect Perez' white spit and it was an intentional act. Deputy [redacted] turned his face away from Suspect Perez and he heard a slap sound. When Deputy [redacted] turned toward Suspect Perez, he saw Deputy [redacted] had a hand on Suspect Perez' face. Deputy [redacted] said he remembered telling Deputy [redacted] that they needed to broadcast they were involved in a fight.

Deputy [redacted] attempted to use his portable radio, which apparently did not work because Deputy [redacted] grabbed Deputy [redacted] microphone to broadcast the fight. When Deputy [redacted] removed his hand from Suspect Perez' face, Deputy [redacted] saw blood coming from the area of her nose. Suspect Perez returned to her former position of facing toward the ground and attempting to kick the deputies. Suspect Perez continued to berate the deputies with profanities and taunt them that they needed to "hit the gym". Deputy [redacted] used his O.C. spray and deployed a one to two second burst to Suspect Perez' face, which had an immediate effect. After the O.C. spray was deployed, the deputies were able to gain control of Suspect Perez' arms. Deputy [redacted] could not recall which deputy handcuffed Suspect Perez, but they worked together to accomplish the handcuffing. Deputy [redacted] said neither he nor Deputy [redacted] used any force on Suspect Perez after she was handcuffed. Deputy [redacted] authored a supplemental report [EXHIBIT C] regarding his actions and observations related to this incident.

CIVILIAN WITNESSES

No civilian witness were located for this incident.

SUSPECT MONICA PEREZ

Suspect Perez was interviewed on three occasions regarding this incident. The first interview was conducted by Field Sergeant John Adams #[redacted] The second interview was conducted by Watch Commander Lieutenant Robert Smith #[redacted] The final interview of Suspect Perez was conducted by IAB investigator Sergeant Chad Smeltzer #[redacted]

Field Sergeant Interview Of Suspect Perez

Suspect Monica Perez was interviewed at Beverly Hospital by field sergeant John Adams while being medically treated for her injuries. The interview was digitally video recorded [Exhibit E]. Suspect Perez' statements were incoherent at times and she had difficulty focusing on the questions asked of her. Suspect Perez said she was contacted by the deputies as she crossed the grass to use the McDonald's restroom. As the deputies contacted her she lifted up her shirt to show the deputies she did not have any weapons. Suspect Perez said she was under twenty-one years of age and possessed beer. Suspect Perez said she was disrespectful to the deputies and used profanity toward them. Suspect Perez demanded a female deputy conduct a search of her instead of the male deputies. Suspect Perez said she was "cracked by the white fool", indicating she was struck by Deputy [redacted] and that she was handcuffed when she was hit. Suspect Perez said she was hit "a couple of times" and she was pepper sprayed.

Suspect Perez said she did not mean to spit on the deputies faces and that she was trying to breathe. Suspect Perez claimed she was a future LAPD officer and a future pro-boxer. Toward the end of the interview, Suspect Perez told Sergeant Adams he was strange and his questions were strange.

Watch Commander Interview Of Suspect Perez

On November 28, 2010, at 0035 hours Lieutenant Robert Smith interviewed Suspect Perez at Beverly Hospital as she received medical care. The interview was digitally video recorded [Exhibit F]. Suspect Perez said her true name was Adilene Campos with a birth date of January 9, 1991, and she was nineteen years old. Suspect Perez said she was walking through the McDonald's restaurant parking lot so that she could go to the bathroom. Suspect Perez admitted to drinking beer prior to the deputies contacting her, but she could not recall how much beer she had drank. When the deputies contacted her she was carrying a total of five beers. Suspect Perez carried the beer in the following locations: two were in her waistband, one was in a back pocket of her pants and one was on either side of her pants in cargo pockets. Suspect Perez said she did not have any open containers.

Suspect Perez said as the deputies contacted her, the deputy in the passenger seat asked her what she had under her shirt. Suspect Perez said she lifted her gray shirt to show the deputies, but attempted to conceal the beer. Suspect Perez said she told the deputies that they needed to get a female deputy to search her and that she tried to walk away.

IAB Note: During the interview, a member of the hospital medical staff interrupted the interview and told Suspect Perez that her jaw was broken, but it did not appear to be a bad fracture. The medical staff member pointed to rear left area of Suspect Perez' jaw, indicating where the fracture was located. Additionally, the medical staff member said the radiologist had difficulty reading the cat scans.

Suspect Perez said she was disrespectful and questioned the deputies actions and she pulled away and "got dropped". Suspect Perez said she did not like being touched and had a problem being touched. Suspect Perez said when she drinks, she spits a lot and did not know if she hit the deputies when she spat. Suspect Perez said she was handcuffed and and asked the deputies "Was up bitch?", and then she was struck twice in the face. Suspect Perez said after she was struck, her nose started to bleed. Suspect Perez said she was not kicked, but was held down on the ground by the deputies.

Suspect Perez said she knew she was going to be pepper sprayed and she told the deputies not to spray her because she had asthma. Suspect Perez said the pepper spray was sprayed under her eyes, and indicated her cheeks with her fingers. Suspect Perez said she was probably under the influence of marijuana at the time of the incident. Additionally, Suspect Perez said she is bipolar and schizophrenic.

IAB Interview Of Suspect Perez

On November 29, 2010, at 1310 hours IAB investigator Sergeant Chad Smeltzer interviewed Suspect Perez at the Century Regional Detention Center. Suspect Perez said her true name was Adilene Campos and her birth date was January 9, 1991. Suspect Perez said she was nineteen years old and had drank six to eight Coronas prior to the deputies contacting her. Suspect Perez said she was walking through the McDonald's restaurant drive-through area and she was carrying bottles of beer. Suspect said she carried the beer in the following configuration: Two Coronas on her waist, one in her left pocket and one in her right pocket and a Tecate in her left pocket. Suspect Perez said the deputies shined a spot-light on her and began to ask her questions. As Suspect Perez spoke to the deputies she attempted to suck in her stomach to conceal the beer. Suspect Perez admitted she was under the influence of alcohol and considered herself tipsy.

Suspect Perez said when the deputies asked for her name, she told them a different name so they would stop questioning her. Suspect Perez said the passenger deputy looked Hispanic and asked her questions and what she had under her shirt. The passenger deputy exited the patrol car as did the deputy in the driver seat, who looked White. When the driver deputy exited the patrol car, people who had been waiting in the drive-through line left the area because the patrol car was blocking the drive-through.

Suspect Perez said the passenger deputy handcuffed her, searched her waistband area and found the beer in her waistband. When the passenger deputy grabbed the beer, Suspect Perez dropped herself to the ground. Suspect Perez said when she dropped to the ground she sat down on a concrete surface. Suspect Perez said she used profanity at the deputies and the driver deputy punched her twice in the face. Suspect Perez said after she was hit in the face her nose started to bleed and she spit. Suspect Perez said she was surrounded by more deputies and the passenger deputy sprayed "mace" in her face. When Suspect Perez was sprayed with the "mace" she felt dizzy and a burning sensation on her face. Suspect Perez said she never tried to walk away from the deputies.

IAB Note: Detective Grant recovered McDonald's restaurant video surveillance footage [Exhibit G], which showed a person walking away from two deputies as they followed the person at the approximate time of the incident. Refer to Detective Grant's supplemental report [Exhibit H] for further details.

Suspect Perez said during the incident she felt a knee from one of the deputies pressing on her back holding her face down on the concrete. Suspect Perez said she told the passenger deputy that she had asthma and not to spray her.

Suspect Perez said during the incident with the deputies, she received a broken jaw, a fractured nose, she felt pain in her right rib cage area and she received bruising to her knees. Suspect Perez said she had a history of mental health issues and had been in a placement facility in Texas for bipolar and schizophrenic behavior.
